

Student's Worksheet

A Round the World Trip

You have won a Round the World Trip! You will visit each continent and see the most famous places in the world. Read about the journey and try to guess what the underlined words mean. Then read again and choose the correct answer to each question.

1. You begin the trip in the biggest city in England. You visit Buckingham Palace, Madame Tussauds wax museum and then go on a cruise on the River Thames. Which city are you in?

- a. Birmingham b. London c. Paris d. Edinburgh

2. You go to the south of Europe and make a stop in Rome, the capital city of Italy, to see Colosseum. From there you make a day trip to the smallest country in the world, where the Pope lives. Where do you go to?

- a. Luxemburg b. Andorra c. Vatican City d. Monaco

3. From Italy you take a cruise to Spain across one of the largest seas in the world, which contains the islands of Cyprus and Sicily. What is the sea called?

- a. Black Sea b. Red Sea c. Baltic Sea d. Mediterranean Sea

4. From Spain you fly to South America. From Equador you travel by ship 1000 kilometres west to a group of islands where giant tortoises, iguanas and tropical penguins live. What are these islands called?

- a. Canary Island b. Galapagos c. Fiji d. Bahamas

5. Your next destination is Antarctica! You cross half of the frozen continent to get to the South Pole. Which animals can't you see in Antarctica?

- a. sharks b. Penguins c. seals d. albatrosses

6. You decide to fly off to a warmer climate. You rent a jeep in Cape Town and drive to national parks to see lions, leopards, rhinos and giraffes. Then you visit Lake Victoria, climb Mt. Kilimanjaro, sail on the Nile River and finally stop in Cairo to see the Great Pyramids. Which continent have you just crossed?

- a. Africa b. Asia c. Europe d. North America

7. You take a long flight to Sydney. From there you drive to the largest coral reef in the world. You hope to see some kangaroos while you are in this country. Where are you?

- a. Australia b. Argentina c. Canada d. Indonesia

8. Your next stop is India. You take a train from Delhi to Agra and then rent a rickshaw to take you to the most popular tourist attraction in India, a beautiful white mausoleum built in 17th century. What's the name of this building?

- a. Sears Tower b. Eiffel Tower c. Taj Mahal d. Sagrada Familia

9. From India you take a bus to Nepal, where you trek across the Himalayas to see the world's largest mountain. What is the name of the mountain?

- a. Mt. Everest b. Mt. Blanc c. Mt. Aconcagua d. Mt. Elbrus

10. Your next country on the list is China. After visiting Shanghai and Beijing, you take a cruise to San Francisco in North America. From the ship you can see the Hawaiian Islands. Which ocean have you just crossed?

- a. Indian Ocean b. Pacific Ocean c. Atlantic Ocean d. Arctic Ocean

11. You rent a car and drive through the USA, visiting the Grand Canyon on the way. You end your journey on the east coast. On your last day you go to the top of the Empire State Building to see the panorama of the whole city and then have a picnic in Central Park. Which city are you in?

- a. Washington, D.C. b. Los Angeles c. Seattle d. New York